The Student Human Relations Commission (SHRC) is a county wide effort to organize student commissions at every Guilford County High School under the auspice of the Greensboro Human Relations Commission and in partnership with Guilford County Schools. SHRC's mission is to promote and secure mutual understanding and respect amongst the Guilford County student body, school staff, parents and community. Each high school will maintain a commission made up of no less than 15 Commissioners representing each grade, and 2 county Delegates. Delegates will be recruited and selected by the Greensboro Human Relations Commissioners and school administrators. School Commissioners will be recruited and selected by the Delegates and school administrators or their designee. The following application must be completed and returned to the Greensboro Human Relations Department for appointment to the SHRC as a Delegate.
